

Harry Ames came over from the farm near Gem postoffice the latter part of last week to get ready to move his family out there. They left with their belongings on Tuesday. Harry says he fits into the grove as nicely as a foot in a sock and enjoys digging and delving among the rocks and dirt. There many friends here wish them an abundance of success in their new home.