

A reward of $400 is being offered for the capture of the thief who stole the horse, buggy, harness and some meat from the farm of Joel Baum last week. The mare was tracked to the hills west of Pingree in Stutsman county and the county officials have been notified. This is the second time Mr. Baum has had horses stolen and he is bound to capture the thief this time if it is possible.