

right.

One of Mr. Bowk's boys narrowly escaped a serious accident on Monday afternoon at the Farmers elevator. The boy, accompanied by two others, went into the elevator unnoticed by Mr. Shepard and the Bowk boy immediately stepped onto the man lift. As it was set for a full grown man he was immediately shot to the top of the house, but as luck would have it he was thrown out on the floor of the cupola and escaped without injury. When Mr. Shepard saw what had happened he thought of course the boy was killed and dispatched one of the other boys for the doctor, but when they got the boy down he ran down the drive way and escaped, his thought apparently being to get away from punishment.