

Peter Hanson, who has been employed in the meat market all summer as assistant butcher, left for his home in Wisconsin on Thursday evening to spend the winter. Pete is a good fellow and no doubt will have a good time during the winter and his many friends here hope to see him return in the spring.