

Otis E. Perry had the misfortune to break one of his legs on Tuesday evening. While he was after the cows he stepped in a badger hole and the limb was fractured between the knee and the ankle, both bones being broken. Dr. Macdonald set the limb and he is getting along as well as could be expected but will be laid up for some time.