

Albert Rasmussen, who had been in the employ of Ed Peterson for some time, left for his old home in Norway on Friday evening on account of the death of his father. According to the law of that country the oldest son is the principal heir and has the right to pay all the others off, and Mr. Rasmussen is the oldest son of the family.