

Paul Edwin Skjerseth has accepted a position with the First National Bank and entered upon his duties last week. Mr. Skjerseth has only been over from Norway about three months, but he has already mastered the English language in good shape and is a valuable addition to the bank force as he talks a number of languages and can conduct business with anyone who might happen to come in. He was a lieutenant in the army in the recent trouble in Norway and is well posted in military affairs in that country. He also taught the languages in one of the universities there.

---