

ATTEMPTED RAPE

TWO OF OUR PROMINENT YOUNG MEN WERE OBLIGED TO LEAVE TOWN OR BE GATHERED IN BY THE STRONG ARM OF THE LAW.

Ralph Hagy and Tom Stringer have been conspicuous for their absence around Courtenay since the latter part of last week on account of a warrant that is out for their arrest, charging them with attempted rape. On Thursday evening they took two girls for an automobile ride, and the complaint alleges that they made indecent proposals and one of the young ladies was obliged to make her escape through the wheat fields and remained out all night. The people of Courtenay are stirred up over the affair, and should the young men ever show up in this part of the country again it will not be very well for them.
