

tures.

A fine baby boy was born at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mimic last week and the happy father is stepping higher than usual in consequence of the event. The youngster is a fine healthy specimen of the type that only Dakotans can boast of. At the rate that little newcomers have been reported of late the necessity of taking another census to ascertain the actual population of our little city becomes apparent.