On account of the cold and stormy weather prevailing for the past week or two and also due to the failure of giving The Gazette an inkling of the occasion, we failed to chronicle in the last week's issue the fact that the stork visited the home of Dave Syverson, leaving in it's wake a fine eight and one-half pound baby girl on Monday night of last week. On the same night a fine boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Christian Wralstad. All concerned are doing nicely.
