

DEATH OF LITTLE MURRELL CLARK

THE GRIM REAPER SNUFS OUT THE LIFE OF YEAR OLD BABE.

The shocking news reached here Sunday morning that Murrell, the year old baby girl of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Clark, Jr. had died at the home of Mrs. Clark's parents at East Edge, N. D., at about 8 o'clock Sunday morning after an illness of a few hours.

Mrs. Clark left last Friday for an extended visit with her parents at East Edge together with the little girl. Shortly after their arrival she was suddenly taken seriously ill and a doctor was hastily summoned but it being a distance of some fifteen miles he arrived too late to administer relief, the little sufferer having succumbed to the relentless hand of death that knows no distinction and recognizes no heartrending sorrows of a father or mother. An incipient attack of pneumonia and an abscess of the lungs were diagnosed as being the immediate causes of her early demise.

Telegraphic reports apprised the father and grandparents here of the shocking news and they left Sunday morning on the next train for East Edge to attend the funeral services and interment of the little body which was held in a cemetery near that place. The sorrow-stricken parents have the sympathy of the entire community, in which the Gazette joins in heartfelt condolence.
