

FARMER DIES OF BULLET WOUND

ACCIDENTAL DISCHARGE OF GUN HAS A FATAL RESULT.

Carrington, May 7. — (Special) — E. D. G. Miller, a farmer of some over fifty years of age, was accidentally killed by a shot gun in the hands of his son, Lee A. Miller. The son was carrying the gun from one room to another, when in some manner it was discharged, the charge entering the father's arm and shoulder. He lived for some time but finally succumbed.

The son is but 21 years of age, and is heart-broken over the accident, although he cannot believe that his father is dead. Ezra Miller, the deceased, was one of the county's most respected citizens, and was the father of four children. He was an old settler.
