

Mrs. James Oxenrider and her little girl returned to Mitchell, S. D., last Friday. The poor mother was in a very nervous condition from attending the interment of her sixteen months old baby which died recently at Mitchell. The little body was sent here last week and burial was held at the Courtenay cemetery last Thursday.