

e brother in misery.

F. G. Ellis received the sad intelligence last Thursday of the death of his sister, Mrs. E. O. Patterson, in a hospital at Omaha. Mrs. Patterson has been ailing for some time and finally succumbed to an operation. The burial took place at her home in Dallas, S. D. Much sympathy is extended to Mr. Ellis in the loss of so near a relative.