

DIED AT HER SON'S HOME

MRS. LUDWIG SCHUMACHER
BREATHES HER LAST AT A RIPE
OLD AGE.

Monday afternoon at about two o'clock occurred the death of Mrs. Ludwig Schumacher at the home of her son, Chas. Schumacher, with whom she had made her home for the past nine years. Her death was caused by cancerous growth aggravated by old age, being 82 years, 10 months and 6 days old at the time of her demise.

Funeral services were held Wednesday from the home of her son and interment made at the German Lutheran cemetery southwest of town. Rev. Luecker gave an impressive funeral sermon which was attended by a great number of relatives and friends of the deceased. She leaves two sons, Charles of Courtenay, and William of Chicago, to mourn her death.

Wilhelmina Opperman was born in Braunschweig, Germany, in 1828 and moved to Chicago in 1851 shortly after her marriage, where she made her home until her husband's death. Four sons were born to them, two of whom are dead.

The deceased has been a patient sufferer from an incurable malady for a number of years and death came not unexpected to those who were nearest her. Her long and useful life was spent in joys and sorrows and she has gone to the great beyond to reap her reward.
