

Wedding Bells

Ringling

GROUPELL-YOUNG NUPTIALS OCCUR
AT HOME OF BRIDE'S PARENTS.

The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. George Grouell, near Putney, South Dakota, was the scene of a pretty home wedding on Tuesday, May 9, when Fred M. Young of this place and Miss Annie L. Grouell were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, the wedding ceremony being performed by Rev. Butts, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Grotton, S. D., at eight o'clock in the evening. Only a few of the intimate relatives and friends were present on the occasion. A sister of the groom played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

Immediately after the ceremony a sumptuous wedding supper was served to the happy couple and the guests. The table was appropriately decorated for the occasion and seated twelve guests.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Grouell. She was born in Ida Grove, Iowa, and her early youth was spent on her father's farm near there. She attended the public schools and afterwards the high school of Ida Grove from which she graduated before leaving with her parents for their new home in South Dakota, where they have resided since.

Fred M. Young is a son of W. S. Young of Ida Grove, Iowa. His boyhood days were spent on his father's farm and his education derived from the rural schools in that community, graduating from the Ida Grove High school with high honors before coming to this state. He worked in the harvest fields near Dazey only about three years ago but concluded to attend a business college in Minneapolis to gain a business education. After attending the college for about six months he secured a position with the Stutsman County bank of this place and has held the position of clerk and assistant cashier of that institution ever since.

Mr. and Mrs. Young arrived from South Dakota Friday morning and have taken up their residence north of the track and expect to make this place their permanent residence. The people of this community welcome the newly wedded couple to their home and the best wishes go out for their future welfare and a long, happy life.

A reception was given them upon their arrival by some would-be jokers that did not greatly appeal to them as an appropriate joke, the nature of which was rather insinuating to be appreciated. The decorative character might have appeared unique but was altogether out of place for the occasion. The varied bunting and mixed paraphernalia with which their baggage and residence was adorned bespoke ill-timed ingenuity of humor, though it is evident that no vulgar insinuations were intended.