

al. Do not forget it.

---

The sale of the personal property of Fremont Barnett will be held tomorrow on his farm south of town. A fine bunch of horses and milch cows will be offered for sale and strong bidding is looked for. The sale will be conducted by Auctioneer Kribbs, with Major Loran Nichols as clerk. Mr. Barnett and family will move to Courtenay immediately after the sale and make their future home in the large dwelling house recently purchased from A. H. Saxerud in the southwest part of town. Failing health and better school accommodations for his children prompted him to make the change