

A shooting scrape is reported from near Spiritwood lake. In a dispute over some hay land Mike Bender, in a frenzy of anger aggravated by consuming the contents of a keg of beer, emptied his revolver into the body of Andrew Tomjack. Three of the bullets lodged in various parts of the body but luckily none with fatal effects. Bender had a hearing in Justice Bigelow's court and was bound over to the district court for the sum of $1,000. Tomjack is confined to a hospital at Jamestown, and, unless blood poisoning sets in, will recover. He refused at first to have the bullets extracted unless without expense to him, and went several days before he permitted physicians to extract the bullets.
