

George Farries, formerly proprietor and editor of the Gazette came up from Williston Saturday evening to renew acquaintances and visit with friends. He expects to leave in a day or two or as soon as he can get his automobile put in shape which he will take up to Williston, intending to run it up there if the roads permit. His many friends are glad to see him again among their midst and rejoice to see him prosper at his new location.

---