The wrestling match between George Levanskofki, the Durham lightweight, and Edward Hanson was pulled off at the ٤ Fire hall last Friday immediately ٤ after the basketball games be-(fore a good sized crowd. Both boys were in the best of condition and it took 26 minutes to de-8 cide the first fall, which was t awarded on a toe hold to Hanson. The next round the latter acted I mostly on the defensive but Levt anskofki, though nearly winded C by the many endeavors to turn 1 his husky opponent, succeeded O in getting the next two falls in ŀ 22 and 16 minutes respectively. 1 M. L. Vale as referee gave good Ľ satisfaction by his constant vigilance concerning unfair holds. Levanskofki expects to have a match with Frank Michaelson of h McHenry, who is reported to be b good at the game, and an inter-F esting match is promised. Jan. 14 is the date set.