

Melvin Hanson left Thursday for a three weeks trip to Prairie du Chien, Wis., where he expects to get relief from trouble he has had with his spine—not lack of backbone, but a diseased condition of that important location.