

JIM LAKE AND VICINITY

Olaf Starvold and family are moving onto the Geo. Armstrong farm near Kensal, recently vacated by the Carl Anderson family.

The Krubeck family from near Wimbledon are now located on the Gustave Guenther farm which has been occupied the past two years by the Henry Kirsch family who lately moved to the Dan Grennan place three miles north.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Forster are enjoying a visit from the former's sister whose home is in Minneapolis. Her husband is to join her in a few days and they expect to make their future home here. We welcome them back to this country where the lady formerly lived.

Henry Thoman made a business trip to Jamestown on Thursday last, returning home Friday.

Parties from Wimbledon visited at the Krubeck home last Sunday evening.

Master Wilfred Anderson who was so unfortunate as to break his leg in a runaway about two months ago has entirely recovered from his injuries. The plaster Paris cast removed and gets about as readily as ever and is as bright and sunny as usual. He is a brave little man.

Two cows were found dead last Thursday morning on the farm of Andrew Forsberg. On investigation one proved to be the property of John Riden, the other of Edwin Forsberg. It is supposed the animals ate too much flax screenings. It is quite a loss as both cows were valuable.

Miss Anna Ringdahl visited at August Guenther's last Sunday.

Miss Minnie Lees has been engaged as teacher in the Meyer district.

Miss Florence Riden is teaching near McClusky, N. D.

Miss Emma Reibe visited her sister at Valley City last week.

Henry Thorman's machine just finished work at C. D. Wood's place and moved to E. Thane's.
