

Mrs. James Keiran received word from Taber, Alta., stating that a fire had destroyed all the machinery that her husband had taken up there before his death. The machinery had been stored on a loading platform which had caught fire the origin of which was unknown. Mrs. Keiran's son Joseph, went up there yesterday to see if anything could be done to recover indemnity for the loss of their property.