

KENSAL

Miss Georgia Feckler spent Sunday at Courtenay with Miss Cecila Whelan.

Miss Dardos, who just finished a term of school near Carrington, spent the latter part of last week visiting with Mrs. Thos. Nihill and went to Courtenay Saturday evening to visit with Miss Arndt.

Arthur Brewer returned Thursday morning from Sentinel Butte where he has been employed in a bank during the last year.

Mrs. F. L. Thompson and June are in St. Paul with Mrs. Thompson's mother who is quite ill.

A. A. Rounce made a business trip to Carrington and Valley City the latter part of last week.

The Misses Louise Hjorth, Mable Frederickson and Agnes Schlect visited with Miss Blanche Smith, of Courtenay, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Radke returned from Keoma, Sask., the latter part of last week. They left Mrs. Arnold Radke much improved in health.

Mrs. Kolb and little daughter, Helen, are visiting with friends here for several weeks.

Mrs. Jno. Kline returned from Wimbledon last Wednesday after spending two weeks with Mr. Kline's parents.

The Walrath home was released from quarantine Saturday and others in the same neighborhood expect to be out soon, no new cases having developed.

J. S. Carr was a passenger to Valley City Sunday evening.

Miss Gladys Thompson visited with Postmaster Nelson and family, of Courtenay, between trains Saturday.

Mrs. Miles Feero is packing her household goods and expects to leave in a few days for western Canada to join Mr. Feero who has located there for the winter.

At the regular meeting of the R. N. of A. Monday evening, officers for the ensuing year were elected. Gladys Thompson was reelected as Oracle, Mrs. Johanna Clancy reelected Vice Oracle, Mrs. Alice Smith, Chancellor; Agnes D. Thompson, Recorder; Mrs. Nellie Cysewski, Receiver; Clara Klefler, Inner Sentinel; Mrs. Gene Nichols, Outer Sentinel; Mrs. Elma Smith and Mrs. Tufford as Managers. The Graces were appointed by the Oracle as follows: Faith, Anna Nogosek; Courage, Agnes Schlect; Modesty, Christine Christiansen; Unselfishness, Blanche Richart; Endurance, Grace Clancy. Miss Christine Follansbee will continue to act as captain of the drill team and Miss Mable Frederickson as musician. The Royal Neighbor Lodge is one of the oldest and strongest orders in Kensal and they plan on making 1912 a record breaker.

Little August Paplinski has fully recovered and will be brought home from the Platou Hospital Saturday.

Sam Young of Carrington was here between trains Sunday evening.

Mrs. Andrew Holmes left Tuesday morning for Milace, Minn., to visit with a sister; from there she will go to her home in Wisconsin and will probably spend some time in Chicago before returning in the spring.

The Malchow Orchestra, of Oakes, furnished music for a masquerade dance at the I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday evening. Malchow's reputation as an up-to-date orchestra and the good weather brought a large crowd and all had a fine time.