

KENSAL

Mrs. J. J. Clancy and two little daughters, Margaret and Helen, left Sunday morning for Carrington for a few days visit with relatives.

Geo. E. Berg spent Monday evening in Courtenay.

Vern H. Smith left Sunday evening with his car of stock and machinery for Ambrose, N. D., where he will farm the coming season. Mrs. Smith will join her husband as soon as he reaches his destination.

Oscar Croonquist left Sunday evening for Melstone, Montana, where he will resume his work as brakeman out of that town.

H. B. Postlewaite of Courtenay transacted business here the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Roach of Bordulac were guests of Mrs. J. J. Clancy last Friday.

Goodhart Bowers and family have moved onto the Chris Bredahl farm.

Carl Ramstad arrived from Harvey Monday evening and has again taken up his work of tailoring at his usual headquarters.

A. W. Stramstadt, formerly employed by N. M. Boe in the blacksmith shop, is now working in Sykeston, and as soon as he becomes permanently located will move his family there.

Geo. Thompson and wife of Cooperstown spent Sunday here with relatives.

John Norheim left the latter part of last week for Montana where he will make residence on his claim.

J. H. Miller of Rock Rapids, Iowa, transacted business here on Friday.

Dr. Longstreth reports the birth of a twelve pound son to Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Neva on March the 28th.

Tuesday morning as J. L. Crawford was going to the field the horses started to run, and he fell, the wagon and plow passing over him. He was quite badly bruised and was immediately brought to town where he had the attention of Dr. Longstreth who looked after his injuries and he is now reported as getting along all right.

The many friends of Miss Myhra Wilson of Courtenay will be sorry to learn that she is afflicted with diphtheria, and it is hoped that she will soon recover.

Mrs. Will Forester Jr. is visiting with friends and relatives in Pingree.

Last Thursday evening a large crowd of the friends of Mrs. R. F. Chase proceeded to her home where she was pleasantly surprised. About midnight an elegant lunch was served.

Wednesday, March 22, Christian and Mrs. Bredahl celebrated their silver wedding at their new home here. About eighty guests, some being relatives, were invited to celebrate with them this joyous occasion. At two o'clock an elaborate dinner was served and the afternoon was spent in conversation relating principally to pioneer days in North Dakota. The evening was spent in dancing in the I. O. O. F. hall, which amusement was indulged in until the early morning hours. Mr. and Mrs. Bredahl were presented with many beautiful and costly presents as follows: A sideboard, a silver service of five pieces presented to them by the Danish Brotherhood of America of which the host and hostess are members, a silver creamer by Editor and Mrs. Tufford, and many other silver pieces too numerous to mention. The estimable couple are pioneer residents of this community, having moved to Dakota shortly after their marriage at Oconto Falls, Wis., 25 years ago, at that time having filed on a homestead in Foster county, and being now the possessors of 1200 acres of land near Kensal. The out of town guests who participated in this social function were Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Neilson, and Edwin Olson, all of Carrington.

ASHLAND SCREENINGS

Walter Lange went to Jamestown Sunday and returned Monday, bringing a load of lumber. The boys in this neighborhood are collecting tin pans and cow bells.

Martin Albright moved to a farm belonging to Andrew Neva near Kensal where he will farm this summer.

"Crick" Moulder returned to North Dakota Monday and will work for Bischoff brothers.

Jack Hanna arrived from Chicago Friday and will work for Chas. Schumacher this summer.

Miss Lena Albright went to Wimbledon Monday where we understand she will remain for some time.

John Lavenskosi called at the home of Geo. Albright Sunday.

Mr. Tomlinson has left our neighborhood and moved to his farm near Courtenay.

Miss Lydia Sperner called at the home of John Braasch Jr. Sunday.

Mrs. A. W. and Clara Schumacher were callers in Courtenay Saturday.

Will Moulder made a swift trip on his motorcycle from Fargo to our part of the country. He reports that the roads are fine.

Ed. Schumacher has been trying the roads in this part of the country with his auto. He says if this cold weather continues he will go south.

Mrs. Ernest Bischoff went to Fried to do some shopping Saturday.

John Lange visited at the home of Chas. Schumacher Saturday.

Peter Rudolph made a trip to Courtenay Monday.

The "Owl."

Surprised Their Friends

Towner News-Tribune: A wedding of unusual interest took place at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Hall Wednesday evening when Miss Clara Ethel Partch and Mr. Emil Albert Lohrke were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The popular young couple attempted to keep the wedding a secret for a time, and had their plans well laid, but were unsuccessful, and at 10 o'clock in the evening several friends of the couple became suspicious and in order to set their suspicions at rest filed up to the Naylor home and secured a confession.

Miss Partch is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Partch of Leeds but has been employed at the Harris drug store the past six months.

Mr. Lohrke is in the employ of Atty. D. J. O'Connell and is one of Towner's rising young attorneys.

They will make their home in Towner and The News-Tribune joins with their many friends in wishing them all the joys of a happy wedded life.