

KENSAL

Benjamin Bingham, the oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bingham passed away at the hospital in Minot Sunday morning at two o'clock, after a two weeks illness with typhoid pneumonia. Mr. Bingham, who was with his son when the end came, accompanied the remains home Monday morning. Funeral services were held from the M. E. church Monday afternoon at 2:30 interment was made in the Kensal cemetery. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

H. W. Schweitzer who has been transacting business in Minneapolis for the past two weeks returned to Kensal Wednesday evening.

Mr. Bjornstad who succeeded Mr. Schweitzer as section foreman here, left Wednesday for Rogers where he will fill a similar position with the Soo.

M. T. Lavey left on Tuesday for Balfour where has accepted a position as section foreman.

Mrs. Lewis is reported to be quite ill at her home north of Kensal.

Master Harry Lonski is confined to the house with an attack of tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Peterson are the proud parents of a ten pound son who made his appearance at their home on the 13th.

A large crowd of young people went out to the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Johnson Saturday evening in response to an invitation to a party on their son, Melvin. They report a good time despite the inclemency of the weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Briggs, of Buchanan, came over Monday to attend the funeral of Benjamin Bingham.

Mr. Bingham, of Fargo, attended the funeral of Benjamin Bingham last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Nogosek, who left the latter part of last week for Eckelson, were unable to go farther than Jamestown owing to the rains. They were compelled to leave their auto in Jamestown and return home by train.

Mrs. Victoria Baker arrived last week from Michigan for a visit with relatives.

Howard Chase of Ames, Iowa, was here the latter part of last week for a visit with his sister, Mrs. R. F. Chase, and family.

Miss Georgia Feckler Sundayed at Courtenay with the Misses Anderson and Whelan.

Messrs. Heaney and Berg autoed to Courtenay last Sunday evening.

Clarence Croonquist spent Friday under the parental roof, returning to Harvey the same evening.

Miss Jeanette Carmody has been confined to her home the past week with a severe attack of indigestion.

Messrs. Zimmerman, Orlady and Burns of Jamestown autoed over Sunday and took dinner at the O. B. Christopherson home.

Miss Marguerite Carrol, of St. Paul, arrived Monday morning and is employed at the Feckler home as housekeeper.

Miss Ida North and Miss Blanche Smith went down to Courtenay Friday evening, spending Sunday at the Smith home.

Ben Wick, who has been acting as operator here for several

WE
line
marl
and

Cox-Tu

weeks, was one of the operators laid off in accordance with the Soo's elimination of their force here, and left for Minnesota the latter part of last week.

Residence and Livery Property For Sale

Have for sale my livery barn with horses, harness and buggies; also my residence property. Will sell either separately or together. Cheap, if taken soon. Terms: Half cash, balance on easy terms on well secured paper. Call, or write

A. C. Christensen,
23tf Courtenay, N. D.

Taken Up

Came to my place on Section 4-143-63, one black yearling heifer with halter around neck. Owner can have property by identifying animal and paying charges of keeping, advertising, etc.

Andrew Neva.

For Sale Cheap

Seven room house, in good location, with 110 barrel cistern. Also 3 lots, barn and chicken coop. Part cash at time of sale or next fall, balance on time and terms to suit.

35tf Martin McWethy.

Democrats who slipped in from sheep raising states are not certain that reform should go so far as to attack the high tariff on wool.

Notice of Chattel Mortgage Sale

Notice is hereby given that default has been made in the condition of that certain mortgage made by The Courtenay Farmers Elevator Company of Courtenay, Statsman county, North Dakota, mortgagor, to Gilfillan-Remund Co., a corporation of Minneapolis, Minnesota, mortgagee, dated the 8th day of April, A. D. 1911 to secure the following indebtedness, to-wit: One note dated Sept. 1, 1910, due July 1, 1911, for $3,500 with 7 per cent interest from date, and one note dated April 1, 1911, due May 15, 1911, for $3,128.47 with 7 per cent interest from