

too much additional expense. Here every piece of mail must be counted and tabulated by hand which will take considerable more time and work to accomplish.

The new system of counting the mail started in on Monday morning and is entirely universal, being enforced in every post-office in the United States.

KENSAL

Miss Mae McBride, of Wimbledon, Sundayed at the Brewer home.

Mrs. Glenn Farrar returned home last Thursday morning, having spent six weeks with her parents in Snohomish, Wash.

Mrs. McMullen and Mrs. Blohna returned to their homes at Wauzeka, Wis., Friday evening.

Mrs. Anton Fredrickson and daughter, Mable, were passengers to Courtenay Friday evening where Miss Mable had some dental work done.

Frank Plummer was an arrival on 106 Sunday evening and is now assisting at the First National bank.

Miss Bird Thompson was the guest of Miss Inez Atwood of Courtenay last Friday evening.

Mrs. Greenleaf of Rock Rapids, Ia., arrived Friday morning for a visit at the F.L. Nichols home, being a sister of Miss Gertrude Thompson and Mrs. Nichols.

A. J. Thompson of Hosmer, and B. C. and Geo. H. Thompson of Cooperstown spent a few days at the parental home the first of the week.

Mrs. James Jones Jr. visited with friends in Courtenay the first of the week.

Miss Louise Gregar left last week for her home in Tappen after closing a successful term of school in the Jos. Nogosek district.

O. B. Christopherson transacted business in Jamestown Tuesday.

Miss Birdie McNeil closed a successful term of school in the John Clark district and has again resumed teaching in the Ambrose Ableidinger school.

C. W. Hensel and Geo. Bouer of Courtenay were transacting business in Kensal Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Plant of Jud, N. D., are visiting at the C. R. Sterrett home north of town.

Dan Clancy Jr. took a party of young people to Courtenay in his auto Monday evening.

Miss Gertrude Thompson is improving from her recent illness.

Mrs. Ellen Claffin left Wednesday morning for Rainy Butte for a visit with her sons and their families.

EASTMAN

Rev. Ora Edwards started Eastman school No. 2 Tuesday.

Mrs. Henry Bond is spending the week with her son, John.

Rev. and Mrs. Ora Edwards spent Wednesday evening at Loren Syverson's.

Zilpha Edwards spent Monday with Olive Syverson.

Mrs. C. Olson is spending a few days in Courtenay with her mother, Mrs. Miner Posey.

Eastman school No. 1 closed Friday.

Mrs. Leonorah Wendland is spending a few days in McHenry

Mrs. Ben Gilmore called at Loren Syverson's Friday afternoon.

Mrs. H. Fuglstad and Mrs. H. Larson visited Eastman school No. 1 Friday.

Mrs. A. J. Gorthy and Mrs. I. Beach spent Friday at the Loren Syverson and A.J. Gorthy farms.

Albert Gorthy visited at Le-verne Syverson's Saturday and Sunday.

Why not abolish the umpire and have direct decisions by the people at baseball games? Is there no progressiveness in baseballdom?