

KENSAL ITEMS.

Mrs. Cordelia House left Monday evening for her home near Thompson, Alta., after spending several weeks here looking after business interests, and visiting with relatives.

Mrs. F. L. Thompson and daughter Vera left Tuesday evening for LaCrosse, Wis., where a specialist will be consulted in regard to Miss Vera's health which has been troubling her for sometime.

Gertrude Thompson left last Friday morning for Calgary, Alta., after visiting several days here at the Nichols home.

Henry Klefler went down to Valley City Sunday evening to be with his daughter Miss Clara who will undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Kathryne Williams spent Sunday evening with friends in Courtenay between trains.

Miss Birdie McNeil, who has been teaching at Fessenden, arrived here Saturday evening and after a short visit here with her friends will go on to her home at Elysiam, Minn.

Mrs. Kate House and little son returned to their home in Moorehead, Minn. Saturday evening after a week here looking after business interests and visiting with friends.

Miss Lulu Jones went to Jamestown Saturday morning for a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Richmond and family.

Mrs. J. M. Watson arrived last Wednesday eve and will spend some time here as the guest of her many friends.

Mrs. Cordelia House transacted business in Carrington on Saturday.

A. A. Parent was a passenger to Enderlin Saturday evening returning Monday morning, he has again resumed the duties of night operator, M. M. Zeches, who has been filling that place for several days, having been transferred to Hoffman, Minn.

O. Hanson of Grace City, autoed over from that place Saturday morning and spent the day here with his cousin, Miss Clara Mauritson, who returned to Grace City with him that evening, spending Sunday there.

Mrs. E. H. Robinson arrived Friday evening, and as soon as Mr. Robinson is able to find living rooms, they will begin house-keeping.

A. A. Ladvig of Mercer, N. D., was a guest over Sunday at the L. W. Guslander home.

Little Margaret Clancy entertained a number of her little friends and her teacher, Miss Mauritson, on Monday afternoon, the occasion being Margaret's eighth birthday.