

KENSAL

Mrs. John Harris is visiting at the Geo. Richmond home in Jamestown this week.

The Misses Hellmund and Hammersteadt of Courtenay were visitors here on Monday.

Mrs. J. J. Sherman, who has been visiting at the Thompson home for the past two weeks, returned to her home in Bancroft, Iowa, Monday evening.

Clarence Isaacson of Valley City spent Sunday here with his many friends.

The Messrs. O. E. Holmes, Thayer and Thompson and Mrs. John Kline and Miss Anna Brewer autoed to Jamestown Monday, returning the same day.

Mrs. Geo. W. Leete and her guest, Mrs. Burlingame of Luverne, Minn., spent Monday in Carrington visiting with friends.

E. Robinson is the new proprietor of the Kensal Cash store, having taken possession this week; he is an experienced merchant and we welcome him to our village. Mr. Ryan has not as yet decided on his future venture.

Herman Skjerseth of Courtenay was transacting business in Kensal on Tuesday.

John Nihill left Monday evening for the twin cities on business.

Percy Thayer is assisting at the Kensal drug store.

John Cress returned from Fargo last week where he underwent an operation for appendicitis; Mr. Cress is slowly gaining strength and we hope to see him about soon enjoying his usual good health.

Mrs. Hugh Smith and daughter, Blanche, drove up from Courtenay Saturday and spent Sunday with relatives.

E. R. Cram, a former agent for the Soo at this place but now of Hawkins, Wis., in company with his daughters, Hazel, Myrtle and Mable, spent Sunday here with friends. Mr. Cram and family expect to leave next week for a visit with relatives in Missouri and California.