

Chas. Lilley, in behalf of himself and children, wishes to express through the columns of this paper his sincere thanks for the kind assistance in a monetary way and other ways tendered him by the members of the A. O. U. W. and a number of citizens after his recent loss by fire of his entire belongings.