

The little girl of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Lohrke, who has been seriously ill with scarlet fever, has almost entirely recovered and it is expected that the quarantine will soon be taken from their living rooms in the Gallivan house.

George Boyer who recently