

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Mansfield left Monday for Black Duck, Minn., where they expect to stay for several months. Mr. Mansfield has had his horses working in the woods since early snow fall near Black Duck and they have earned him a goodly sum of money during the dull season of the winter. Mrs. Mansfield has entirely recovered from her recent attack of smallpox which was of a very light nature.

---