

---

The quarantine of Mrs. Glen Mansfield was removed from the rooms occupied in the Clark hotel last Thursday by order of the board of health. The apartments were thoroughly fumigated by Louie Portz of the Flint undertaking and furniture establishment of Jamestown, removing all fear from contagion from the slight attack of smallpox with which Mrs. Mansfield was afflicted.