

Postmaster H. Theo. Nelson returned Tuesday from Taylor, Wis. where he visited with his parents. He reports that great changes have taken place in that part of the country. Substantial farm buildings having taken the place of shanties and log-cabins and that the whole community has the air of prosperity. His father, Mr. Tollef Nelson, also the father of Emil and John Nelson of this place, came with him for a visit with his sons.