

Rev. Ludwig exchanged pulpits last Sunday with Rev. J. W. Kingston. Wm. Reid took Rev. Kingston to Wimbledon in a cutter and on the way had the misfortune to overturn the rig and its occupants in the snow. Luckily none of the snow got hurt leaving only an impression. Next time you take anyone for a ride Billy, tie a road scraper on either side of the sleigh to avoid any future accidents.