MILLIONAIRE KID MAKES SENSATIONAL ESCAPE AT MANDAN. SHOWS REMARKABLE NERVE.

Bismarck, N. D., June 6.—Fred Rinker, known as the millionaire kid, escaped from Deputy Sheriff Barnes at Mandan this morning at 4 o'clock after having been arrested at Miles City, Mont.

Rinker has had a spectacular career for the past six months. Working at a local hotel as a bell boy he announced last winter that an uncle at Crookston, Minn., had died and left him a fortune of $25,000. The story was proved to be without foundation and the theft of a case of cigars from the N. P. freight office was traced to him but not until he had left the city.

He was captured at Linton while working with a survey crew, and lodged in the county jail to await trial and escaped in company with a former pen convict. He was arrested Saturday afternoon at Billings and was being brought here when the second escape was made.

He had handcuffs on and asked to go to the closet where he evidently went out through a window. He went to the N.P. shops and told a story of being held up and handcuffed by tramps. The
