

M. E. Storruste was a passenger on the west bound for Lucky Strike, Alberta last Tuesday evening where he has a half section of land on which he intends to live. Before leaving he came to our office and left an order to have the Gazette sent to his new location. He said he couldn't get along without that paper and he wanted to keep in touch with his many acquaintances at this point.

---