

several weeks.

August Swanson, the old faithful section foreman of the local yard of whom it is said that the Soo railroad officials have several times refused to accept a resignation from, left Friday for a couple days trip to Canby, Minn., to visit his son, William, who is employed as station agent at that point and is reported to be doing fine.