

---

Mrs. M. L. Vale returned from Sheldon Saturday for a brief stay here with her husband. Though she has been gaining rapidly in health and strength she found herself still too weak to attend to her usual household duties and again left for Sheldon Tuesday evening to stay with her parents until her health is fully improved.

---