

Mrs. Robert Walker and her son went to Fargo Monday upon receiving a report that Mr. Walker, who has been confined to the St. John's hospital at that place, was very low and fears were entertained that he would succumb to the onslaught of the disease with which he is afflicted. From later reports received we learn that his condition has made improvement and that he is feeling much better than he had before.