

slow. — Cooperstown Courier.

O. L. Langworthy of Courtenay, of the Langworthy Lumber Co., felt so good over the birth of a son a couple of weeks ago that he went and had a picture made representing 'troubles of our own' and had it run in his ad. We suppose that he took that method of notifying his customers that business was suspended. — Cooperstown Sentinel.

---