

City and County News

The Misses Baillie and Stowell went to their homes to spend Thanksgiving.

I am selling the Parker Lucky Curve fountain pen. Best first-class pen made.—P. E. Ahearn.

Prof. E. D. Button came down from Kenmare last evening and is spending his Thanksgiving vacation here.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Dennis are the proud parents of a baby girl which arrived at their home yesterday morning.

E. E. Clark was up from Jamestown a few days this week looking after business affairs in this corner of the county.

Peter Skroch is here this week from Independence, Wisconsin, visiting his brother, Frank W. Skroch. He was accompanied by Fred Maul, a brother-in-law.

Ross B. Lowe, of Long Prairie, Minn., has accepted a position with the Courtenay Mercantile Company to take the place of Earl Rounds, who goes away to school about the first of December.

Andrew Anderson, a son of Ole Anderson, died at Fargo on Tuesday and the remains were brought home for burial and the funeral was held from the Presbyterian church this afternoon. Mr. Anderson had been a sufferer from diabetes for some time and had gone to Fargo for medical treatment. His father has also been in poor health for some time and the end is expected almost any moment.

The school children enjoyed a vacation on Monday as a result of the damage done to the heating plant by someone who broke into the school house during Sunday night. The miscreant let all the water out of the boiler and then fired it up until it got red hot and set fire the asbestos paper around the steam pipes and injured the boiler until it will cost about $300 to repair it. Stoves were put into service and school work was resumed on Tuesday.

P. J. Neva and Miss Mary Marsolek were married at the Catholic church at Kensal on Tuesday of this week. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the groom four miles west of Courtenay where a large number of invited guests assembled to celebrate the happy event. There was plenty to eat and drink and the floor of the large farm barn was the scene of the merry dance and all enjoyed themselves until Wednesday morning, when they went to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Neva many happy days of wedded life.

For farm loans apply to the First National Bank, Courtenay.

H. N. Tucker made a business trip to Valley City Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Tucker returned on Monday evening from a trip to the fair.

Mrs. Hopwood has purchased Tony Scheler's restaurant business and has taken possession of the same.

W. M. Thayer was down from Kenmare on Tuesday for the first time in several months. Walt can talk as loud as ever and the people in this burg like to hear him talk.

If you need an organ call on P. E. Ahearn and see some good first-class organs.

The delinquent tax list which is being published in the Jamestown Alert is much shorter than usual which is an indication of the general prosperity of the county.

The latest thing in political circles is cards of thanks from the winning candidates for the support of the voters. Those who did not win out are not saying a word.

"I was troubled with constipation and stomach troubles, lost flesh, my complexion was ruined; Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea brought back my health and complexion."—Mary Allen, St. Louis. 35 cents.—H. J. Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bolstad left Sunday evening for their home in Iowa after having spent the summer in Courtenay where Mr. Bolstad followed the painter's trade. He was kept busy all summer and will probably return in the spring.

"Taint no use to sit down and whine,
When no fish get tangled in your line
Bait your hook with a bumble bee,
And keep on taking Rocky Mountain Tea.—

H. J. Murphy.

Two young men who were on their way home from the west and had stopped off at Courtenay on Monday night to spend a day or two were held up in the railroad yards some time during the night and robbed of all they had in their possession at the time of the hold up. The men who did the job wore masks and consequently no definite description of them could be given any more than that one of them wore a belt and did not wear any suspenders. From the description