
Williams-Cuthbert

The marriage of Hartman Williams of this city and Miss May Cuthbert of Minneapolis took place New Year's eve. at Watertown, S. D. Mr. Williams is the son of M. D. Williams of this city and Hartman's friends extend congratulations.

It may not be generally known but Call Williams, brother of Hartman, was married last April at Tres Arroyas, Argentine, to a young lady from the South of France whom he first met on the steamer going down from Rio Janeiro on one of Mr. Williams' trips. She speaks French and Spanish fluently and he has the delightful task of teaching her the English language. Mr. Williams is an expert for the International Harvester company and has worked in Argentina for some years.—Capital
