

John Haack has returned from the hospital at Jamestown and is now at his farm. His father is here from the east and may take John to St. Paul in a few days to consult with doctors there. He is getting along very nicely now and it is thought he may entirely recover of his present ailment.—Wimbledon News.