

The little son of L. Heffron who was injured some time ago by having his foot caught in the gearing of a hay rake, was again injured one day this week by receiving a kick in the face from a horse. The boy is very fortunate in his mix-ups, and especially the last time, when the face was only badly bruised.—Wimbledon News.