

While returning from work on the section Tuesday evening Frank Kupka spied a large wolf about a hundred yards from the track and one shot from his rifle brought it down. There is a bounty of $4.50 for these animals and Frank considers himself lucky in making as much money in a few minutes as he would by working on the section for three days.