

Herman Nuenfeldt who has been in the employ of Charles Schumacher all summer happened an accident Tuesday evening which will lay him up for some time. He was going home from town with a load of posts and when a few miles west the posts slipped and he was thrown between the horses. In the mix-up one of his legs was broken and one of his ears nearly severed from his head and he was badly bruised about the face. He was brought to town and Dr. Macdonald dressed his wounds and he is now resting as comfortably as possible.
