

Pleasantview Notes

Mike Kirkeby lost a valuable horse Monday night.

John Donaldson visited Cooperstown on Wednesday.

Mrs Green who has been very sick is slowly recovering.

John Kirkeby and Miss Dena Solberg visited Courtenay on Monday.

Irwin Claffin expects to be home from the woods about the 12th, of April.

Anton Peterson returned last week from Minnesota and will work for Ole Anderson this season. Glad to see you back Anton.

Rev. and Mrs. Shaver left on Monday for Bald Hill where he is holding revival meetings. Rev. Shaver is an energetic evangelist and believes in putting his shoulder to the wheel and never looking back.

If anyone in Pleasantview vicinity has been offended at the little pleasantries that have appeared in the Pleasantview notes we hope and pray for you to excuse the writer who is a good natured hayseed, and if there will be any satisfaction in roasting him to a rich brown, go ahead boys, you cannot make him mad.

The Pleasantview postoffice has been moved two miles north of the old location in Griggs county. The mail will be in every day i the week except Sunday, thus giving Pleasantview a daily mail service. Come and see us boys, you will always find the postmaster at home and your mail will receive careful attention.
