

Pleasantview Notes

Martin McWethy visited Courtenay Saturday.

Mac Turner visited Cooperstown on Wednesday.

Mrs. Ben Oliver has been on the sick list, but is better.

Andy Crawford is rolling the virgin prairie for Turner.

Tom Bradford took in the ball game and show in Courtenay Saturday.

Herman Peterson has been laid up with rheumatism, but is around again.

Mrs. George Sloan, who has been very ill for some time, is slowly improving.

Seeding is nearing the end for this season, W. Wilse being the first to finish in this vicinity.

Frank Kingsley reports that his trip to St. Paul was highly satisfactory, the cattle market being O. K.

Mike Kirkeby expects to leave shortly for the hot springs. We hope Mike will be benefitted by going there.

Come out and attend Sunday school in the Bemis school house at 2 o'clock every Sunday, when you can't go anywhere else.

S. M. Posey has returned from Rochester, Minn., entirely cured. Mr. Posey has many friends who will be pleased to hear that he is back.

Hiram Bond goes around wearing a broad smile. The reason: A little girl has arrived from fairy land and is here to stay. Here is to you, "Hi," when you come around with those Havanas.