

PLEASANTVIEW NOTES

Threshing is all completed in this vicinity. A good crop was harvested and threshed and everyone will be rich this fall, nit,

Frank Owens finished threshing on the 15th. Frank put in about thirty days and made several gold dollars while he was about it. He left his rig here and intends to thresh here next season.

Claude McNeil of Battle Creek, Michigan, who has been doing carpenter work in this vicinity, left on Friday for Minot where he expects to take up land and become a tiller of the soil. Good luck to you Claude.

Henry Bond has rented his farm to Norman Crawford and will move into town. He expects to visit the south again this winter.

Bert, Bonnie and wife are keeping house for A. O. Peterson.

W. A. Furman made a business trip to this vicinity on Friday.

Rev. Kline has been returned to this pastoral charge by the conference just ended.

Tom Bradford and Miss Dodge visited McHenry on Wednesday.

The Free Methodist church in the McHenry district will be dedicated on November 5th. Rev. Heath will conduct the dedication services. Don't forget the date.

Miss Florence Cook and mother from Iowa are visiting at the parsonage. Miss Hattie left on Monday for Wisconsin where she will attend school.

John Sutton's house is rapidly nearing completion. It is a fine residence.

Miss Hattie Riddle was up on Friday instructing a class of pupils in music. Miss Riddle is a talented and accomplished music teacher and we predict successful work in this place.

Quite a number of the friends of Charlie Bemis took him by surprise on Friday it being the anniversary of his 21st birthday. To say that Charlie was surprised would be to express it mildly. A six o'clock supper was served and everyone did amply satisfy the longings of the inner man. The evening was spent in music and singing and playing games until the early hours of the morning told it was time to go home, all feeling that a most enjoyable evening had been spent.

They say that Carrie Nation is loose in this state with her hatchet and is smashing up things in general. Carrie is accompanied by a lady whose business it is to teach the young idea how to shoot.
